

THE PADUCAH DAILY SUN.

VOLUME 1—NUMBER 231

PADUCAH, KENTUCKY, MONDAY, JUNE 7, 1897.

TEN CENTS A WEEK

STARVING CUBANS

Make a Strong Appeal to Americans for Succor.

SECRETARY SHERMAN TO RESIGN

Kentucky Plums Will be Distributed This Week.

MARSHAL LAW FOR URBANA, OHIO.

Havana, June 7.—An appeal comes to America from a thousand starving Cubans for succor. The appeal states that hundreds of starving Cuban girls are made the subject of daily outrages on the part of the Spanish soldiers, that children are butchered and their bodies left to be devoured by vultures. It alleges that very many atrocities are committed daily and of every conceivable type.

SECRETARY SHERMAN.

It is Said Feeble Health Will Cause His Resignation.

Washington, June 7.—A well sustained rumor has been going the rounds for some days to the effect that Secretary Sherman will resign next week and that he will be succeeded by Assistant Secretary Day. Mr. Sherman's feeble health is said to be the cause of his determination to lay aside the robes of office.

The sugar schedule of the tariff bill was passed today and will be taken up tomorrow.

KENTUCKY PLUMS.

Will be Distributed Before President Departs for Nashville.

Washington, June 7.—It is confidently expected that the President will distribute a number of Kentucky plums before his departure for Nashville this week.

THE PRESIDENT.

Petitioned From Lexington to Speak There.

Lexington, June 7.—A largely signed petition has been forwarded to President McKinley requesting him to speak at Lexington on his way to Louisville.

MORTALLY WOUNDED.

A Patent Attorney Shoots His Former Typewriter.

Washington, June 7.—Charles Barber, a patent attorney, this morning shot and mortally wounded Miss Squires, his former typewriter, while she was passing along a crowded street. He then turned the weapon against himself, shooting himself dead. It is believed Barber's mind was unbalanced.

MARTIAL LAW

Expected to be Enforced at Urbana, Ohio.

Urbana, O., June 7.—Martial law is believed to be enforced here today. Capt. Leonard and Sheriff Gay are still fugitives and it will certainly not be safe for them to return here in the bitter, excited state of the public mind.

THE NEW RICHMOND

Closed With Breakfast This Morning.

The New Richmond Hotel was closed to transient trade this morning after breakfast, to be reopened under the management of genial Don Gilbert.

Mr. Lagomarsino made a popular host, and the bar and billiard hall will continue open until July 1st, when he will reopen in new quarters. The third street building where the Paducah Banking Company was formerly located, "Shorty" Sexton will continue as manager with Mr. Lagomarsino.

AN ELECTION FIGHT.

Capt. Roberts Painfully, But Not Seriously Hurt.

Capt. Newt Roberts was badly used up in a fight with Mr. Tom Everett last night.

The difficulty occurred over the election. Capt. Roberts made some remarks which displeased Mr. Everett, and the latter struck him a time or two in the face, knocking him down. Capt. Roberts was carried back to the rear of the store, where his face was washed, and Mr. Everett remained on the outside with a crowd.

In a short time Capt. Roberts, furious over the attack, seized a revolver and going outside hit Mr. Everett over the head with it. They clinched and Mr. Everett slashed him across the jaw with a knife, inflicting a painful wound. Mr. Everett surrendered, they separated and Mr. Everett was taken before Constable Patton and released before Justice Little and released on bond. Capt. Roberts' shoulder was found to be dislocated after the fight, and Dr. Robertson also replaced it, in addition to sewing up the gash.

The case was called at 9 o'clock this morning and continued until tomorrow at 9 o'clock, on account of the inability of Capt. Roberts to attend the trial.

POLICE COURT.

A Short and Uninteresting Session Today.

There was a brief session of police court this morning. The warrant against M. Ruth, the fisherman charged with demolishing two shiffs belonging to M. Forshee, was, on motion of County Attorney House, filed away, with leave to re-instate on account of a lack of evidence.

The case against Elijah Reeves, charged with receiving stolen goods, was continued until tomorrow.

Two or three "unfortunates" were fined for drunkenness.

HAD A PISTOL.

Robert Hayes, Rather Young to "Tote a Weepun."

Arrested Yesterday Afternoon by Officer Jeff Barnhart.

Robt. Hayes is the name of a boy who was arrested at the base-ball park yesterday afternoon by officer Jeff Barnhart, on a charge of carrying a pistol concealed.

He is about fifteen years of age, and a son of the well known dairyman. The officer caught him slipping in several times and put him out, and finally being told that he had a ball in his pocket, searched him and found the pistol. The boy was badly scared and offered the officer the pistol to let him go, saying that he was only carrying it to kill a dog. The weapon was unloaded, however.

He was taken before Justice Winchester and released on bond, and his case will come up tomorrow afternoon.

CAPITALISTS HERE.

Talk of an Electric Railway to Cairo.

The Result of Their Investigation Not Yet Known.

A party of New York capitalists were here last week on a prospecting tour. They have in contemplation the construction of an electric railroad from Paducah to Cairo.

The gentlemen are all men of means and what conclusion was reached has not, as yet, been given out. A railroad from here to Cairo is something long talked of, and an electric railroad from here to that place would no doubt be of great advantage to both cities, but there is hardly a probability of its being built just yet, in the opinion of many who profess to know.

REMARKS.

There was a good many lean reviews in the offerings this week and generally the quality ran poorer than for some time. The market was very strong throughout, for all grades and kinds.

With light showers, the weather has been more favorable, but the rains have not been, as a rule, heavy enough to give a good planting season.

FATAL THRUST.

Will Posey Killed by Grant Stevenson.

BOTH STEAMBOAT ROUSTERS.

Trouble Occurred Over a Pair of Shoes and Sixty Cents.

INQUEST, BURIAL AND ESCAPE.

Will Posey, a young steamboat darkey claiming to be from Louisville, was stabbed Saturday night in the left side by Grant Stevenson, also colored, in an old cooper shop near First and Washington streets.

He staggered out and was found on Court street over a block away some time afterward, but no information as to the identity of the assailant would be divulged.

Dr. Jeff Robertson was called and dressed the wound, and Posey was removed to the city hospital.

The gash penetrated the hollow below the heart, and was pronounced fatal from the first.

Officers visited the scene of the tragedy and found a white man asleep there. He said two darkeys did the cutting, but claimed he didn't know their names and this is all the information gotten from him.

Posey died at the city hospital about 11 o'clock yesterday morning, and was carried to Nance's undertaking establishment.

A jury was summoned and this morning an inquest was held. William Jackson and John Banks were arrested yesterday on suspicion, and testified before the coroner.

Albert Hamilton, alias "Fevering John," testified that he did not know anything about it. He was there, but drank.

Riley Nunnely, colored, was there, but asleep. He said, however, that he was awakened by the disturbance and when he ran out was met by the murderer, who brandished his knife and told him not to come any nearer.

Nunnely said he knew the man, and had worked with him, but did not know him by any other name than Grant. He heard him say before the difficulty that he would bring his knife in somebody's side before morning. The difficulty started Thursday, he said, from what he could learn, by somebody stealing 60 cents from "Grant's" mouth while he was asleep.

Banks, one of the suspects, claimed that he and Posey were asleep when Stevenson came in and accused Posey of having his shoes, or being near them. He struck a match twice and finally the men engaged in a fight. Banks claimed he did not know any cutting was done until later. He lives at Hopkinsville.

The verdict was that the deceased came to his death from a knife wound inflicted by Grant Stevenson. The last seen of the murderer he was going towards the river. He and Posey were friends, and came up from Cairo on the Speed last week. The remains of Posey were interred in the county cemetery this morning, and the two suspects were released.

FINED $2 EACH.

Base-Ball Players Arrested for the Third Time.

Mr. Chase, Wellie, Makes an Address to the Court.

The members of the Paducah and Evansville baseball clubs were arrested yesterday afternoon, in the eighth inning on warrants sworn out before Justice Winchester.

The cases came up before the latter today and County Attorney Houser and Hon. E. W. Bagby spoke for the prosecution, while Mr. Chase, Wellie, made his maiden speech before the bar of justice in behalf of the baseball club. It was an excellent speech, and Mr. Bagby's was no better, according to those present.

A fine of $2 and costs was assessed against each member, on recommendation of the attorneys for the prosecution.

SALOON BLAZE.

Payne & Mount's Saloon Damaged Saturday Night.

Mount & Payne's saloon, at Broadway and Maiden Alley, caught fire in the third story Saturday night between 8 and 9 o'clock and was damaged to the extent of about $500.

The blaze is supposed to have originated from the kitchen flue. It was extinguished in a short time by the fire department.

Mr. Geo. Payne, one of the proprietors, was in the third story during the blaze was discovered throwing himself from the window. The loss to the saloon is about $700. Capt. J. R. Smith owns the building, which is fully insured. Joe Cook, a runner of the fire department, and Ed Boffinger, a stationman, were painfully injured by falling glass, the former's head being cut, and the latter's thumb being almost severed.

City Clerk Cole Would Not Release the Sleepy Young Man.

City Clerk Arthur Cole and Capt. Bill Rollins were passing the First Baptist church about 9:30 o'clock last night when they heard a terrific pounding from the inside.

They halted the hysterical occupant and asked him why he was disturbing the tranquility of the Sabbath.

"Somebody locked me in!" he wailed.

"What did he do it for?" asked the clerk in amusement.

"Don't know!"

"Now weren't you asleep?"

"Yes, I guess I was," was the tearful admission.

"Well you'll have to stay there tonight," was the consoling rejoinder.

"Let me out, it's dark in here. Can't I get out of the window?"

"If you open any of those windows you'll be arrested for grand larceny."

"How can I get out then?"

"Don't get out. Just pile up on the bench and stay there until daylight!" and chuckling to themselves the cruel pedestrians passed on and left the prisoner to his fate. He was evidently a boy, but his name was not learned.

KILLING AT CAIRO.

A Memphis Man Kills His Sweetheart Through Jealousy.

He is in Turn Killed by Officers, Who are Exonerated.

Richard Caldwell, of Memphis, shot and killed Mary Jenkins yesterday afternoon at Cairo, because he was jealous of the favors she had bestowed on others.

Immediately after the shooting he fled to a lumber yard back of town, where he was found two hours later by the officers. He was driven out with some difficulty, when he opened fire on the officers. His first shot passed through the wrist of Deputy Sheriff George W. Moore, who returned the fire, killing Caldwell instantly. Moore was acquitted of all blame by a coroner's jury.

A BOLD BURGLAR.

Crawls in a Window and Over a Bed of Sleeping Children.

Officer Jeff Barnhart came near killing a burglar Saturday night.

A negro was seen jumping from Mr. Will Shelton's window, at his residence on South Third street near Stingy alley.

He raised the window, and crawled over the bed containing three children, and went into Mr. Shelton's room before awakening anybody. He succeeded in getting Mr. Shelton's vest, but his money was in his trousers pocket.

The officers shot at him several times, but did not hit him.

ANNOUNCEMENTS.

The Sun is authorized to announce

As a candidate for Constable for the First District of McCracken County, subject to the action of the Republican Party.

The Sun is authorized to announce

As a candidate for Marshal of the City of Paducah, Ky., subject to the action of the Republican Party.

The Sun is authorized to announce

As a candidate for Judge of the Police Court of the City of Paducah, Ky., subject to the action of the Republican Party.

The Republican party having won the last two battles is in better shape to win a victory than ever before.

The thing to do is nominate good men, buckle on our fighting clothes and go in to win.

A Georgia paper says gold Democrats took no part in the Frankfort convention because they "feared to show their weakness." This is the Georgia view of it. The man in Kentucky sees it through an entirely different glass.

The German doctors have found a new and dangerous microbe whose habitation is writing ink. The penman who habitually cleans his pen in his mouth should beware. Now that Mr. Microbe has become known he may be dangerous.

In New York witnesses when sworn kiss the bible. The board of health recognizes in the practice an insidious danger of contagion or infection and recommends that bibles used for this purpose be bound in celluloid, which will admit of washing and cleansing after use.

JUDGE DAVID J. BAKER, of the Illinois Supreme Court, one of the ablest and purest jurists of the United States, is a candidate for reelection. He is an uncompromising Republican and the Democrats will move heaven and earth to compass his defeat. But he will surely be returned to the bench which he has honored by an able, conscientious and impartial administration.

With a population of 4,421,955 in 1896, the great city of London had a mortality of 85,511. During the year there were 79,738 marriages and 135,196 births, the increase of the population being in one year 41,000. This means that there in the city no less than 370 births and over 234 deaths every day during the year. Yet this vast change was going on in the seething mass of humanity practically unobserved by the individuals composing it.

"A GREAT AND SAVAGE power in the East has been allowed by Europe to escape its fetters, and she has now to discuss how, without bloodshed, they may be replaced," says the London "Spectator" speaking of the situation in the East. And the "Spectator" is by no means alone among English journals in recognizing the gravity of the situation as concerns British interests. If England is able to come forth from this great diplomatic contest unscathed, at peace with the world and with her eastern territory intact she will be in a position to congratulate herself on her superb good fortune.

It is of little use to legislate against the brutal prize fight while the people are educated to admire and interest themselves in it by reproductions of the scenes in the stages throughout the country by means of the verscope, as has recently been done in a number of cities. The interest in such exhibitions has proven only secondary to that in the fight itself and as a demoralizing influence is probably even more dangerous than the latter, since many will witness and take interest in such an exhibition would not be seen at a prize fight.

Thus the tare is so v in soils that otherwise would produce only wheat.

It is said the peace negotiations in which the famous diplomats of Europe are pitted against the Sultan singly and alone, are progressing nicely and may be concluded within a week.

The Sultan is believed to be ready to sign almost anything suggested by the Powers, if they may believe the correspondents. We'll wager a good cigar, however, that Abdul doesn't sign any sort of a paper within a week and that some people will be surprised several times before he gets down with them.

No thinking man will doubt for one moment that if Saturday's primary had been conducted with an open ballot the result would have been strikingly different. The knife that proved to be long and sharp would not have been wielded so destructively as every one knows Charley Reed made one of the best mayors the city ever had and had he not committed the awful offense of voting to protect the honor and business interests of his country in the November election the outcome of the race would have been reversed.

It is now believed that two weeks more will suffice for the passage of the tariff bill in the Senate. The sugar schedule, the most difficult of all, perhaps, and the one on which there will probably be the most discussion, has been reached. This passed this week will almost insure the completion of the bill next week. The Senate has surpassed all records in the way it has got down to business on this bill. The Republican members have evinced a determination to respond to the demands of the people for a change in the tariff policy and to redeem the pledges of the party that is highly commendable.

The nomination of Mr. Lang for the mayoralty over the popular Charley Reed, whose record as mayor in former years marks him as one of the fittest men in the city for the place, demonstrates that the silverites have a great long hunting knife up their sleeves for all who dared to vote for sound money last fall, and the gold Democrats may as well bear it in mind. But for the fact that Mr. Reed dared to brave the adverse opinions of the majority of his party and stand for the right as he saw it there is not a particle of doubt he would have been overwhelmingly nominated over Mr. Lang, whose election will be little more than a perpetuation of the Yeiser machine.

Let Mayor Yeiser think well before he declines to identify himself with the most important piece of legislation that has been passed in this city for many years, the sewer ordinance. The sewers are needed, and badly; they are bound to come, and soon; the ordinance will be passed and become a law with or without the mayor's signature. The day it does will mark the beginning of an important era in the city's history. With this era of progress and advancement the mayor may identify himself by signing the ordinance or he may record himself as opposed to progress by returning the bill to the council unsigned.

A NUMBER of cities are beginning to give more or less attention to street noises, which are so annoying to those unaccustomed to the din. While it is impossible to abate entirely the voice of street traffic, much may be done to lessen and alleviate it. In many cases unnecessary rattle and turmoil is created through thoughtlessness or carelessness and could easily be prevented by proper attention. Undoubtedly also more attention will hereafter be given to the subject of street paving in the effort to reduce to a minimum the noise of travel over the pavements. In Sandusky, Ohio, the experiment of a brick pavement laid in tar is being made.

A PLUCKY young lady of Salem,

Massachusetts, saved her affianced some dollars and probably at the same time caused him a sense of humiliation by getting him out of a bad scrape the other night. They were returning in a carriage from a trip to the suburbs when at a dark point in the road a highwayman caught their horses' bridles while another, brandishing a club, threatened to kill them unless they delivered their valuables. This the young man proceeded to do, and had just handed over his watch and was preparing to deliver also his cash when his companion seized the whip and gave the horses a sharp cut which caused them to break away from their captor and the occupants of the carriage were soon out of reach of the robbers.

In a recent speech Mr. Cleveland said the American people were opposed to protective legislation. In sounding the sentiment of the American people Mr. Cleveland has always been an egregious failure. His long term of office has not brought him any closer to them nor given him a clearer insight into their ways of thinking and their demands. Nothing was made more prominent by President McKinley during the campaign than the tare is so v the tariff. The very fact that he represented the protective idea as no other American citizen did, led to his nomination and election. If there is anything the American people do demand it is protection to American industries.

SOUTH American countries import

$350,000,000 worth of manufactured goods annually, only one-tenth of which goes from the United States. This is very largely due to the absence of American ships in which to conduct the commerce. British bottoms naturally favor British markets and "pull" in that direction. The absolute necessity of the building up of our merchant marine is more and more apparent. It is also the duty of the framers of the pending tariff measure to make sure that the reciprocity features of the bill are broad and liberal enough to lead to the desired extension of the trade in that direction. This is the field to which America may look for future development of her trade relations with most promise.

The efforts of fanatical Sabbathar-tians to interfere with the wishes and pleasures of those who do not believe as they do will surely result to the detriment of churches. There is no right in any man, or set of men, to compel others to think and act in matters of conscience as they do. If such right did exist it would be impracticable on account of the diversity in the education and tastes of men.—Sunday Visitor.

There may be no right to compel others to think and act in matters of conscience as they do. But there is a right to prevent infractions of the laws of the commonwealth. There is a right to prevent what the law condemns and what at the same time throws temptations in the way of the young to commit what is conceived to be wrong per se. If diversity of education is in the way, so much the worse for the education. No education is complete that does not involve a due respect for law and public opinion as represented by that class of citizens who are always on the side of morality and order.

LIEUTENANT PEARY, fresh from the hardships and dangers of his first Arctic exploration, declared he had no further ambition in that direction, and would leave to other venturesome spirits further efforts to reach the north pole. But after the lapse of a few years an idea has taken possession of him which he has been unable to resist and he has obtained a five years' leave of absence to be spent in the effort to reach the long-sought goal. His plan is a new one, and yet one which it would seem, ought to have presented itself to the earlier explorers many years ago. Its advantages are so obvious as to lead scientists to anticipate the best results yet obtained if not the actual realization of the object of the expedition. Lieutenant Peary proposes to lay siege to the pole and capture it at his leisure. He will approach it gradually by establishing a series of supply stations at convenient points as far north as possible, and from the last with dogs and sledges will make a dash for the pole. The plan commends itself to scientists as the best yet adopted by any explorer, and the sum of $150,000 has been set apart by the American Geographical Society to meet the expenses of the expedition, the credit of which, if successful, will be shared by the American navy, to which Lieutenant Peary belongs.

CYCLE NOTES.

Oscar Hank has bought a Stearns, and it is expected in a day or two. Jesse Gilbert, the popular Mechanicburg druggist, has a "Yellow Fellow." This is what the Stearns is called.

Mr. John B. Hobson, of the city, has filed three applications for A. W. membership with Secretary Owen Lawson, of Louisville.

A Boston young lady is the author of a new song of term. In speaking of a young man who was acting peculiarly, she remarked: "Oh, he's got an invisible bike," and she helped her friend significantly.

The Fin de Siecle Club will be entertained tomorrow night, if the weather permits, by the young gentlemen members. They will meet at 5:30 o'clock at the residence of Mr. W. F. Paxton, on Jefferson street, and take a spin out to Cold Springs.

The track at Willow Grove, Philadelphia, where the National L. A. W. championships will be decided next August, was opened for the season last Saturday. Over 12,000 people were in attendance, and demonstrated that the present unfinished seating accommodations must necessarily be enlarged before August next.

Some idea of the change bicycle riding has wrought in Paducah, and no doubt in other cities as well, may be gleaned from the statement of a local liverman: "There used to be a rig on Sunday you would sometimes have to engage it two or three weeks before hand. Now there are rigs to burn on Sunday. It is all on account of bicycles. If a young man and his best girl haven't wheels of their own to go out on, they rent them. Buggy riding is a back number. It is too slow for the fads of the day."

Every local member of Kentucky

Division, L. A. W., received during the past week a copy of the official program of the two-fifth annual meet of the division, to be held at Cynthiana on the 22d and 23d of this month. The work deserves the greatest commendation of the committee in charge for the labor expended on it. It contains a number of views in the city places of interest and a group picture of the officers of the meet club. Full lists of the various committees in charge of the preliminary work, the program of entertainment as published last week, list of races and prizes, list of officials in charge of the entertainment in charge of the races. Louisville members have received the greatest share of appointments on committees and as race officials.

Tomorrow night local wheelmen will have an opportunity to accept or reject a proposition for the construction of a bicycle track near La Belle Park. City Engineer Wilcox surveyed the site yesterday, and if Paducah wheelmen ever expect to do it, a bicycle track now is the time to do it. For several years unsuccessful attempts have been made to build one, but for various reasons, one of which is that they were not determined enough, it has never been done.

And speaking of energy and enterprise among wheelmen and what it can accomplish, here is an account of what Indianapolis wheelmen have done:

Every wheelman visiting Indianapoli-apolis comes back filled with information concerning the cycle path built by the wheelmen of that city. It now extends nine and one-half miles out in the country, and by next spring they hope to extend it to fifteen miles. The first cost of the path was met by subscriptions, while the cost of keeping it in repair is met by a toll charged every user of the path. For one dollar per year the owner of the membership ticket is entitled to use the path at any and all times. Others have to pay a toll of 5 cents each way. That the latter amounts to a considerable sum is shown by the receipts from both ends of the path last Sunday, when $100 was paid in. The path is built between the banks of White river and the canal, with rows of trees on both sides. At the far end of the path is a park, where all kinds of refreshments are served and with all kinds of amusements furnished to pass away the time. The surface is laid with fine cinders and gravel and is polished often by a very heavy roller. The ground is level, and makes it one of the most pleasant rides that could be found for the distance.

ONE AND ONE.

Evansville Gets Sunday's Game

by a Scratch.

TIGHTEST GAME OF THE SEASON.

The Score Was 1 to 0, and It Was a Splendid Exhibition of Playing.

OTHER BASE-BALL NEWS.

Exciting? Well you should have been there! Yesterday's game of baseball between Paducah and Evansville was the closest and most heroically fought of the season. It was a crackerjack, a lulu, a peach! There was fast ball playing on both sides, but the boys from the Hoosier state simply outplayed the home boys. Their fielding was superb, and although several times during the game Paducah had bases full with good men at the stick, not once could she score.

Evansville, in the second inning, crossed the rubber. No other run was made. Burke, the third baseman and manager of the team, was the fortunate man. And it was he, in the eighth inning when Paducah was at the bat, who planned the smoothest piece of ball playing ever witnessed on a local diamond, and probably saved his club from defeat when victory was so near. This was when two men were out, one man on third and one on second, and Kenny Murray was at the bat. Burke scratched his head, walked over to Scooter Kelley and asked who was next at the bat, and then whispered something to Baily, the pitcher. Kenny was not afforded the delectable opportunity of making a landing on the horse hide, because the pitcher deliberately threw four easy balls away over his head, and he walked to first.

"Bismarck" Dowling, Paducah's

pitcher, who had already struck out three times and was at the mercy of the pitcher, stepped to the plate, and with three men on bases, two out, not a run and the eighth inning, in "Bismarck" the Evansville left-paw found a ready victim to his aerial convolutions, and "Bismarck" retired the side. A mighty howl arose from every quarter, but the game was Evansville's. The play was generally denounced by people who do not know what constitutes ball playing, but it was pronounced a fine piece of headwork by all who understand the game.

Baily and Dowling, both left handers, pitched faultless games, and the score, 1 to 0, shows what support they received.

SATURDAY'S GAME.

Evansville, for the first time on the local diamond, crossed bats with Paducah Saturday. The game was fraught with excitement from first to last, and resulted in a score of 3 to 2. Sudhoff covered himself with glory, and won his second game. The summary is:

S. C. AND ST. L. MILEAGE.

The new time card went into effect at 12:01 p. m. yesterday.

Trains this side of Hollow Rock Junction were not affected by the change of card.

Work engines 10 and 218 were in to the shops Saturday night for a washing out.

Brakeman Hayden has been transferred from work train to the regular freights.

Engineer Tom Jones, loaded from the cab of the 122 as she hied herself away for the Southern line on yesterday.

Fireman James Gillespie lay off this trip for a rest and Fireman T. H. G. is filling the 307's tallow pots in his stead.

Mr. E. B. Guthrie, the bustling road agent for Mr. H. Marks & Co., wholesale clothiers of Cincinnati, was in on the morning train.

Fireman Ed Loftin is developing fast as a diamond heaver and was transferred this morning from the 218 on work train to the 53, the "runniest critter" on passenger trains.

Engineer Mike Duffy, lately on the Perryville branch, spent several days in the city while the 304 was under going a few slight repairs. He is now assigned to runs between Lexington and Memphis.

Several bets were made by the boys on the result of Saturday's election. This morning some few wear smiling faces, while the visages of others are somewhat elongated.

A free-for-all fistfight was indulged in Saturday evening in which two employees and two outsiders took part at 1001 south Fifth street. Particulars mentioned in another column.

Judges Bloomfield and H. H. H. were passengers out on the morning train for Benton to attend court, which convenes there today.

Doc Poe, the popular porter on Conductor Kirkland's train, was too ill to come out on his run and stopped off in Memphis. Terrell Switzer called the stops in his place.

J. A. Nation is hopping the foot boards of the switch engine in lieu of Switchman Deason, who was mixed up in the scrap Saturday p. m.

Conductor Atwood takes one of the through freight runs on this the frigid end of the line. He high balls No. 108 tomorrow.

Hank Barbee, the eagle eye, gripped the throttle of the 302 with his claws as she rolled out on the afternoon passenger yesterday.

On account of seniority, it is rumored that several changes will take place among the train men within a few days. They will be noted when made.

The L. & N. has a large force grading a branch line from Tennessee Ridge to Bear Grass furnace in Stewart county, Tenn. Idle graders could no doubt find employment on the work.

Engine 300 from the torrid end of the division came in on through freight yesterday for slight repairs, after which she will return to the tropics.

Mr. Al. Townsend, formerly a conductor on the line, but lately a candidate for the nomination of post judge, takes his defeat of last Saturday good naturedly and will support his opponent cheerfully. The railroad men were nearly all for Al and if he had been nominated could have stuck to him almost to a man.

Sandy Herring, Jack Bunker, Frank Hogwood and the balance of the worktrain crew on the south end, spent the day in Memphis yesterday. If they continue down in Wolf river and Hatchie bottoms much longer, nobody will know when once they return here.

Among the work train crews who spent Sunday at home in the city were Conductors Billy Lewis and Billy Beadles and their circular artists, Jack Plant and John Swayne, Engineer Henry Beck and Judge city.
